THE TWENTY–NINTH SUNDAY Jesus reveals Himself as the one who serves, who reaches out, who lowers for others.

BIRTHDAY MASS FOR FR LUCAS The Goan community invites all parishioners to a Birthday Mass at the Sikh Community Hall on Kembrey Street at 3 pm today, followed by fellowship.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR DONATIONS Please deposit in the Narthex your kind donations of the following items for the Christmas Bazaar:
Bottles, alcoholic or not * New and attractive items for Draw prizes

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR MEETING Monday 29 October at 7 pm in the presbytery. Stall-holders are particularly invited to attend.

PLAQUES AND REMEMBRANCE We have some skilfully crafted brass plaques and a Book of Remembrance to honour your loved ones. Names can be added to the Book and plaques made for the church. In return, a donation to Parish funds is invited. The cost of a plaque is about £30 so please bear that in mind when forming your donation.

ABORTION BILL A Parliamentary vote on 23 October could remove protection from unborn babies. Postcards of opposition produced by the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children can be sent to our MP James Gray. The postcards are in the Narthex.

BABY CHANGE A baby change unit is being installed in the accessibility toilet donated in memory of Chrissy Henderson.

WOMEN'S DAY OF PRAYER Please contact the Parish Administrator.

REPOSITORY New items now in stock!

BUILDING FOR THE LORD Thank You to all those who contributed to the concert by the Harmony Singers on Saturday 13 October. The concert raised £531 for the programme of maintenance works. To contribute further to the Building for the Lord programme, please collect some special raffle tickets after Mass, and return your stubs and money before the Draw on 28 October.

COLLECTIONS LAST SUNDAY Thank you for your kind donations of:
Cash £84.76; Standing Orders £200.19; Gift Aid £41.68

Happy Fiftieth Birthday to Father Lucas!
